

North Idaho Family Group, Inc. Board of Directors 2014 - 2015

Shelly Zollman, President

Shelly Zollman became the Director of the North Idaho Family Group in 2013. Over the years she has been involved with many community organizations both in a professional and personal capacity. She was a Coeur d'Alene Chamber of Commerce Commodore for 12 years, a member of the marketing committee for St. Vincent de Paul, an Ironman Coeur d'Alene Volunteer, and is active in fundraising for Coeur d'Alene Charter Academy where her children attend.

She is an owner of ZolMedia Web Design with her husband, Kevin, and has donated her time to dozens of area nonprofits with their website & marketing including St. Vincent de Paul, Lake City Playhouse, the Dirne Clinic (now Heritage Health), Cancer & Community Charities, the North Idaho Violence Prevention Center, and others.

She and her family relocated from the Seattle area to North Idaho in 2000. Shelly has a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Washington.

Janet Bourque, MEd, Director

A founding leader for the North Idaho Family Group Janet is currently: Executive Director at Bright Star Philanthropy Partners, a shared value community development initiative of Bright Star Grant Consultants. Consultant to Nonprofits, Government, and Business: Building the Capacity of Organizations to Achieve High Impact Outcomes. She is also a Principal at Bright Star Grant Consultants: which Identifies and supports community leaders to realize solutions that they design and execute with Bright Star collaborations, technical assistance, and grants. Bright Star Ignites peer grant maker, non-profit, and corporate actors to create shared value solutions in collective impact. Coaches new and established NGOs in organization and project development, strategic planning, facilitation, evaluation and reports based on individually identified needs and goals.

Previously was the Corporate Director of Education and Self-Sufficiency for The Casey Family Foundation and was responsible for developing policy, guidelines, budgets, collaboration with the corporate operations and administrators for programs in 23 states and at Lake Washington Technical College, Supervisor: Federal and State Grants, Special Projects; Evening School and Branch Campus Director.

Candace Godwin, Director

Owner of Godwin Marketing Communications, and has more than 20 years experience in the strategic development and implementation of integrated marketing and communication plans for private and non-profit organizations, higher education and health care entities. She is a member of the Coeur d'Alene Rotary Club, is a board member of the North Idaho Family Group, and serves on the Marketing & Gift Planning Committee of the Inland Northwest Community Foundation.

Carrie B. Cook, Secretary/Treasurer

Carrie Cook joined the North Idaho Family Group in 2014. Carrie currently works at Peak1 Administration as Account Manager where she acts as a third party administrator for company benefits. A single mom with three children in the Coeur d'Alene School District, she has lived in the area for 16 years. Carrie is active in Coeur d'Alene Rotary, the SD271 Long Range Planning Committee and is presently treasurer of the Canfield Middle School PTA. She has also served as committee chair of the Wine, Women Shoes Event benefiting the Idaho Youth Ranch of Coeur d'Alene, as an Ironman Coeur d'Alene Volunteer, and Volunteer Coordinator for the Salvation Army Kroc Center. Carrie attended Texas A&M University.

Bob Driscoll, Director

Bob Driscoll joined the North Idaho Family Group in 2014. As resources and services navigator for the Idaho Department of Health & Welfare, Bob connects with families whose needs are not met by the community and government agencies. Bob helps facilitate and participates in several efforts to connect local agencies including the InterAgency group, the Christian Community Coalition, and the Region 1 Homeless Coalition. He is also involved with Family Promise, Elder Help, and is on multiple local boards including Heritage Health and HARC. He has worked for the Idaho Department of Health & Welfare since 1998, finding that the job fits his parameters of helping people "play well together and support each other." Bob attended Southern California College to study pastoral ministry, biblical studies and psychology, and went on to earn doctorates in psychology in marriage and family, and then clinical psychology at the U.S. International University. Bob is a Veteran of the U.S. Navy.

Kiki Miller, Director

Kiki has been the owner of a publishing/promotions firm in Coeur d'Alene since 1992. She has been in leadership roles in numerous community projects including Cd'A Chamber Executive Board & president of Leadership Cd'a class. A Women's Center Inc. board member, founding partner of Kootenai Alliance for Children and Families, Founding committee chair for the North Idaho Tourism Summit, former CEO/partner in construction/site development company with $3 - 6 million annual revenue. Other community involvement includes Ft. Sherman Playground steering committee, Hands Around Tubbs Hill fundraising, Fundraising and media campaign for Red Hot Mamas appearance in George W. Bush's inaugural parade. Operated the Lake Coeur d'Alene Balloonfest service 30+ nonprofits for 6 years, and many other management positions. She is a Rotarian, and has been recognized as the Cd'A Chamber volunteer of the year, Post Falls Chamber Volunteer of the year and Soroptomists Woman of Distinction.

Open Seat 7

Nomination; in place - Kootenai Co. Sheriff dept. employee

Open Seat 8

Committee Chair Positions:

Procedure and Policy ; Janet Bourque

Marketing : Candace Godwin/Kiki Miller

IT and web oversight: Zolmedia

Non Profit Development: Bob Over, University of Idaho - Leadership Certification

Membership Outreach & Finance; Carrie Cook, Bob Driscoll

Ed Info Center/ Family Magazine/Parterships; Kiki Miller

Annual Services Directory/Data Base & Content Management; Alicia Schade, Kiki Miller